Written by AKA Sunday, 27 June 2010 13:54

What Are Affiliated Kite Clubs

Over 55 local or regional kite clubs are affiliated with the American Kitefliers Association. These clubs are listed in Association publications including this web site, receive support from the AKA Club Liaison, and share other information and materials.

Affiliated Clubs can receive AKA insurance coverage for all "fun flies", meetings, and get-to-gethers. (contact us for details)

Become an Affiliated Club IT'S FREE!

Affiliated clubs must:

- 1. support the goals of the AKA as stated in Article 2 of the Bylaws "... to educate the public in the art, history, technology, and practice of building and flying kites; to advance kiting, its joys and its values, in all nations."
  - 2. have at least 5 AKA members
  - 3. and be non-commercial in nature.

Applications to become an AKA Affiliated Club are available from

- 1. the National Headquarters // xd@aka.kite.org
- 2. or here in Adobe Acrobat Format {loadposition varGetAdobe}

For more information on affiliation please send e-mail to our Club Liaison

Click Here to find a club in your area.